

LAST MINUTE CHECKLIST

- PARENT RELEASE FORM (has to be filled out and in Barry's hands before you can get on the bus)
 - Right now I have these from Gabriella Boeckel, Taylor Kindseth, Jeremy Ness and Jessica Ness. If you are not on that list, make sure you bring your with you on Friday!

- MEAL MONEY ($30-$45 is sufficient)

- ACTIVITY MONEY ($30 will cover paintballing and mini golf. If you're interested in snowboarding you probably need to plan up to $50, depending if you need to rent a snowboard or not)
 - Our group is not going up to ski/snowboard, but the bus we are riding on will be taking a group out there. You are welcome to go with them, if your parents are ok with you being under their supervision.
 - If you go with them, you'll need to get up and be on the bus @ 7:30 am and you'll be back in town around 4:30 pm.

- SPENDING MONEY (This is totally up to each family and/or kid. We will spend a little time @ the Rushmore Mall on Sunday, but keep in mind that we cannot manage all the kids' spending money, so they'll be on their own with it.)

- PACKING (Since we're on the bus, you don't have to pack super light, but don't go crazy! ;) Look at the list below to know what to pack and don't bring anything that you know we wouldn't allow – alcohol, cigarettes, weapons, etc.)
 - Here's what to bring:
 - Your Bible
 - A modest swimsuit
 - Bathroom stuff
 - Clothes (no need for anything too dressy)
 - Extra clothes if you plan to paintball (think layers for padding!)
 - Things to do on the bus (remember that you are responsible for your own stuff, so keep that in mind when thinking about electronics and other valuables)
 - Meal, Activity and Spending Money
